

WEST COAST RANGERS CAMPING POLICY

UPDATED November 30, 2017

1. West Coast Ranges Black Powder Historical Re-enactment Society is a shooting club and our primary activity is shooting black powder. Camping supports the re enactment life style, but is a secondary activity.
2. West Coast Rangers will provide camping to all entrants during Rendezvous and Shooting events sponsored by the Club. This comes with an Entrance fee.
3. Members are permitted to camp at other times by following the guidelines in this policy.
4. Only Paid up West Coast Ranger members may use the range for camping.
5. Members may have visitors camp with them---family or friends. However non-members may not camp on range unless a sponsoring member is in attendance. Liability insurance does not cover them.
6. Everyone camping must sign the shooters (range) book for each day camping. Multiple days can be put in up to a maximum of 7 at a time on one line.
7. Members camping must not leave their tent or camper unattended for periods of longer than 30 days without permission from the executive of the West Coast Rangers.
8. If a camper or tent is unoccupied, the surrounding area must be left tidy. The executive has the right to require members to clean up around their camp areas.
9. All campers and tents must be down and out by one week after the Halloween Shoot or November 10th, whichever comes first. Failure to do so will be dealt with by the executive.
10. The West Coast Rangers are not responsible for damage or vandalism to camping units while on the range.
11. This policy will be provided to all members upon joining the club and posted on our web page.

- 12.No new camping sites can be created without authorization from the executive.
- 13.Members who have developed a seasonal campsite may retain that site from year to year.
- 14.Members having two campsites set up during a Rendezvous must pay two camp fees.
